Monday – All Night !!
Tuesday – Friday 5 - 8PM

Sip, Slug, & Toast

Vermouth – This aromatized wine has been lost in the back of your grandfather’s liquor cabinet for far too long. Herbaceous and elegant with a touch of wormwood, it possesses all of the qualities of a well-balanced cocktail all on its own. Served over ice with a twist of orange.

- ~Dolin Dry, Chambery, France, 17.5% 5
- ~Atxa Blanco, Txakoli de Álava, Spain, 15% 5
- ~Cocchi Vermouth di Torino, Piedmont, Italy, 16% 5

Americano – Americano wines are as American as Russell Crowe. The first part of the word, “Amer”, means bitter in Italian. These aperitif wines are fortified and aromatized. Gentian is at the root of this wine’s distinct finish. Fruit forward with a bitter finish. Served over ice with a twist of orange.

- ~Cocchi Blanco, Piedmont, Italy, 16.5% 5
- ~Contratto Rose, Piedmont, Italy, 16.5% 5

Sherry – Well, you can’t say that the Span never did you any favors. They gave you Sherry, a fortified wine more complex than an episode of Lost. Like a “Choose Your Own Adventure”, the options are endless. Served neat. Some things need not be messed with.

- ~Fernando de Castilla, Manzanilla, 15% 5
- ~Bodegas Grant “La Gorrocha”, Amontillado, 18% 5
